Lieut.-Governor at the Republican Convention.

CRANE'S GREAT VICTORY.

HAS 1347 VOTES TO WIN-LOW'S 538. DR. CARTER
FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELEC-TOR. ELOQUENCE AND EN-THUSIASM OVER THE SITUATION.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.] BOSTON, Oct. 1.—The Republican state convention was called to order at 10.30.
The opening address was made by Chairman Geo. H. Lyman. It was an eloquent speech and was received with wild enthusiasm, the reference to Wolcott and to McKinley being greeted with tremendous cheers.

General Draper made a great speech in which he contrasted most forcibly the features of the Democratic and Republican platforms. The speeches of J. Q. A.
Brackets and Senator Lawrence nominating Wolcott and Crane respectively were handsome tributes to these candidates and were enthusiastically received.

The nomination of Roger Wolcott for governor was made by a rising vote being unanimous and the remainder of the ticket was also made by acclamation excepting, of course, had been expected, that it was necessary to nominate Winthrop Murray Crane for lieutenant governor by ballot.

Mr. Crane was nominated on the first ballot by a vote of 1347 to 538 for Winslow.
The platform adopted follows closely the St. Louis declaration, announcing in the beginning that the Republicans of Massachusetts have neither past professions to abjure nor new principles to declare. Saying "It is our good fortune that the beliefs we have always maintained will serve the people in this day of national peril."

The nominations made are as follows:
For governor, Roger Wolcott; lieutenant governor, Win. Murray Crane; Secretary, William M. Olin; treasurer and receiver general, E. P. Shaw; auditor, John W.
Kinball; attorney general, Moses Knowlton; electors-at-large, J. Q. A. Brackets and W. H. Hallie.

District electors, First, Franklin Carter, Williamstown; second, H. A. Coolidge, Attol; third, A. T. Wistlin, Northbridge;

Smith, Gloucester; seventh, E. W. Mc-Craw, Lynn; eighth, R. O. Fuller, Cambridge; ninth, Peter Morrison, Boston;

THE LEADVILLE TROUBLE.

The Miners Decide to Continue the Strike—200 Withdraw from the Union.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.] LEADVILLE, Col., Oct. 1.—The possibility of ending the strike amicably has disappeared for present any way. The Cloud City miners' union voted last night to continue the strike for $3 per day indefinitely. Two hundred members of the union withdrew and will seek work. The mine operators will fill the places of the strikers as rapidly as possible. The mil-lita will probably be kept here a long time.

POSTAGE ON WEDDING CAKE.

Marriage of an Attempt to Economize Prevents a Marriage.
"Do tell me all about Nell's wedding," said the girl in the crash suit.
"Did it all go off well? And how?"
"Oh, beautifully!" cried the girl in the white frock. "My dress was perfectly lovely, my gloves were an ideal fit, and my hair kept its curl as well as if I was only attending an old maid's tea party."

"How nice! But tell me about Nell.
Was she?"
"She was horrid. Actually wanted me to help her dress for the ceremony!
As if I hadn't my bridesmaid's frock to think of. I am afraid that dear Nell is too selfish to make a really good wife."

"Then she will naturally have an unselfish husband, dear?"
"Perhaps so. Oh, it was delightful to walk up the aisle feeling that every eye was fixed on me!"
"Yes, I know. But tell me, how did Nell get through the ceremony?"
"I really don't know. My mind was full of the one awful thought that I was standing with my back to all those people, while there was no telling but that my gown was crumpled after that long drive to the church."

"Oh, probably it was all right. Was Nell's gown?"
"And wasn't it too bad that Harold was out of town and unable to see me in my lovely new dress?"

"Oh, well, you can send him a photograph."

"Not unless he apologizes."
"For what, going away? But then, even an engaged man must attend to business."

"It wasn't that. It was his subsequent behavior. You see, I wanted him to share some of the festivities, so I sent him a box of wedding cake. You should have seen the letter I got in return."

"But perhaps it disagreed with him."
"It wasn't that. You know, I thought it would be nice to write him a sweet little note and slip it in the bottom of the cake box, so that when he had eaten it all he would have a pleasant surprise."

"Good gracious, do you mean to say that you gave the box away and never knew?"

"No, I don't. The—well, the truth is that those horrid, mean postoffice employees actually opened the box and found the note! Oh, how I do despise such prying inquisitiveness! Not satisfied with that they!"

"Goodness, can—can they send you to jail for violating the postal laws?"

"No, they can't. But they actually made Harold pay letter postage on the box before they would give it to him."

"Four square inches of wedding cake cost him just $1.50, and now he—he says that he is afraid that I am a not cernominally enough to make a good wife for a poor man! I had put the note in the box to save extra postage too!"—Chicago Times-Herald.

Must Be Fed.
"Does young Whittle know much about politics?"
"Yes, I think he does. He has had several chances to run for office and didn't do it."—Washington Star.

Adams was located at Raynham in

FATAL COLLISION.

A Runaway Freight Dashes into Another on the B.
& O. Road

AT TERRIFIC SPEED.

ONE MAN KILLED, SEVERAL INJURED. CARS GROUND TO ATOMS. DERRIS PILED UP AS HIGH AS THE TELEGRAPH POLES.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.]

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 1.—Two freights collided last night at Philson, 124 miles east of Pittsburgh on the Baltimore & Ohio road, making one of the worst wrecks in the road's history. One man is dead and two are fatally injured with several mis-ing, the latter without doubt being under the wreck. Owing to the crippled condition of the wires only meagre accounts are as yet obtainable.

The grade at Philson is heavy, over one hundred feet to the mile. The fast freight is scheduled to meet the west bound freight at Philson. The latter reached the siding and waited on the main track for the east bound train.
Shortly after starting down grade the crew on the fast freight lost control of the train, which soon attained lightning speed.

The fearful speed made the crew decide to take the chances of staying aboard.
As the train shot around the curve at Philson it struck the other train. Every car of the fast freight was thrown to a common centre and ground to atoms.
The engines were smashed to scrap iron.
The debris is piled up as high as the top of the telegraph poles.

JOHN DOE AND RICHARD ROE

Two Prominent Legal Names and Their Origin in England.

The houses of York and Lancaster began and ended with strife within a decade, Napoleon and Wellington pursued mutual carnage for only a few brief years, but two belligerents, famous in legal circles, seem to have been predestined for eternal combat and dis-ensions.

They are John Doe and Richard Roe.
Twin brothers, creatures of the creative British legal mind, these two men of mystery have puzzled the astute minds of judges and lawyers and have caused juries to hang in the jury room while attempting to pour oil on the troubled waters of litigation.

Under the reign of Edward III, when the patient and plodding Saxon was picking his way out of feudal gloom, a new form of legal procedure was enacted by parliament for his relief.

John Ball's love of dominion over land is only equalled by his desire to secure dominion over the high seas, and in the past, as it is now true of the present, whenever he got a hold, a leashhold, a copyhold of any kind upon a spot of earth, great or small, he would cling to it as though the spot was a hallowed heirloom. To possess the Englishman of his real estate wrongfully withheld from him a writ of ejectment was invented.

Hitherto his means of redress lay through a writ of right or a writ of entry—writs wrapped in a cobweb of maze and technicalities. This writ of eject-ment was the mother of John Doe and Richard Roe. These sons, twin boys, were to her as Punch and Judy are to wandering mountebanks, and under the name of one she gathered all the complaints of the plaintiff and under the name of the other all the defenses of the defendant, and thus two armies met in legal form, while hoodwinked justice, in wig and gown, shakes the dicebox.

Slowly the power of monarchy waned and the power of the people grew in strength in old England. The maternal colonies left the maternal roof and set up housekeeping, but both in England and America these two brothers, John Doe and Richard Roe, keep up the family quarrel with fratricidal intent.— Atlanta Constitution.

The Old Menhaden.

The city character of the menhaden is familiar. It is caught for its oil, which is tried out in factories. Menhaden fishermen use purse nets, which are tethered to preserve them. To keep their hands from sticking to the tarred nets, they rub on them a freshly caught men-haden, handling it somewhat as they would a cake of soap. So oily is the menhaden that the simple pressure thus applied is enough to bring through the scales oil sufficient for the purpose.
—New York Sun.

Good Breeding.

A man's own good breeding is the best security against other people's ill manners. It carries along with it a dignity that is respected by the most pompous. Ill breeding invites and authorizes the familiarity of the most thin-d. No man ever said a pert thing to the Duke of Marlborough. No man ever said a civil one to Sir Robert Walpole.
—Chesterfield.

CAMPAIGN PARADE.

Three Republican Marching Clubs Moved Through the Streets Wednesday Evening.

The parade of some of the Republican marching clubs took place Wednesday evening according to announcement. The line moved in the following order: Marchal William Johnson and his aids, Floyd A. Patterson, Bert Field and James Powell all mounted.
D'Alester's Band.
Ward Litch, Capt. L. F. Amador, seventy-five men.
N. L. Millard & Co. club, Capt. Richmond
Redfield, sixty men.
Simpson Manufacturing Co. club, Capt. W.
E. Amador, forty men.

The men made a good appearance in their handsome uniforms and marched well for companies that have had no more practice. The uniforms were very attractive. The line moved through Main, Church, Pleasant, East Main, Main, Holden, River and Brooklyn streets, around George W. Chase's residence and back to River street, where it was disbanded.

A Pleasant Gathering.

A delightful reception and dinner party was given at the residence of Col. A. Porter, 8 Wall street, Wednesday evening by his daughter, Miss Agnes, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Potter, who will leave soon to make their home in Lawrence, Kansas. Twenty covers were laid and the dinner was partaken of amid an interchange of pleasanties.
Just before leaving the table the guests were presented with pretty souvenirs of wedgewood ware and china. The reminder of the evening was spent in card playing and other diversions that afforded much amusement. Among the guests were Miss Potter of Adams, Miss Collins of Williamstown, Miss Butler, Mr. Ross and Mr. Lempe of Zylonite. Regrets were received from several, including Lawyer M. B. Warner of Pittsfield.

Sanford Robinson III.

Sanford Robinson, who went to New York Monday to begin the study of law, came home Wednesday night on account of illness. He is threatened with a fever, but it is hoped the attack may be broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McDougall of Meadow street, have returned from a visit to New York.

John Collins went to New York today to resume his studies at the College of Physicians and Surgeons.

About Eyeglasses.

If you are so unfortunate as to be compelled to wear eyeglasses or spectacles, see that they fit not only as regards the glasses, but the frames. There is nothing uglier than the marks of ill fitting glasses on either side of the nose. An optician who understands his business measures the bridge of the nose, the distance of the eyes from it and the width of the temples, and bends or fits the glasses accordingly. Apart from the discomfort and disfigurement of badly fitting frames, it is hardly possible that the glasses which they hold are right.
They are almost certain to be out of focus. In choosing glasses, although the optician or optician is bound to provide you with what is right, much depends upon yourself, for he cannot see with your eyes. The great mistake of those not accustomed to lenses is to get them too strong. It is such a pleasure for the moment to see things clearly that they exclaim, "Oh, yes, that's just right," whereas the proper glass would be one of considerably less power.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Buller's Obstnacy.

An English journal tells a story to illustrate the obstnacy of Sir Redvers Buller. During the last Nile campaign, when descending through one of the cataracts on board a river steamer, he found to a discussion with Lord Charles Borersford as to the proper channel that should be taken. Each obstinately defended his own course, but in the end that which Buller insisted upon was adopted, and the steamer got through without accident. "You see I was right!" cried Sir Redvers. "Mine was the proper channel." "That was mine, too," coolly replied Lord Charles. "I only recommended the other because I knew you would go against whatever I said."

The Wisdom of Experience.

Aunt Sabina—Berth, don't you have none of these here flirtations young fellows that propose as soon as they call half a dozen times. They ain't no kind of partners for life.

Bertha—But some of them are very nice, auntie.
Aunt Sabina—Never mind that, Berth. I've lived long enough to know that the hollovest and windiest things is most liable to pop.—Detroit Free

COLLECTION OF STATISTICS.

Special Agents of the Census Office Are at the Wilson.

The special agents of the state census office are at the Wilson. Their visit is for the purpose of completing the collection of statistics of manufactures and industrial commerce in this vicinity. In order that our local industries may be accurately shown in the census, it is of great importance that these statistics be fully presented. To aid as much as possible such manufacturers and others as have not yet made the returns required by law, the department has adopted the plan of sending out agents, who, when called upon, will give such assistance as will enable the schedules to be quickly filled.

THIRTEENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Women's Relief Corps Observe the Occasion Wednesday Evening.

The thirteenth anniversary of the Women's Relief corps of C. D. Sanford post, G. A. R., was observed in a becoming manner in Gaiety hall Wednesday evening. About 150 ladies were present and the three hours passed quickly and pleasantly. The hall had been decorated with flags and the floor was nearly covered with rugs. The members sat about in groups and spent the evening in social talk. Refreshments were served from a prettily trimmed stand in one corner of the hall and when the occasion was over the members felt much better acquainted than ever before.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Eight Bells" Tonight.

The Brothers Byrne, with a clever company of comedians, present their rollicking acrobatic comedy, "Eight Bells," at the Columbia this evening. The play is a musical farce-comedy with a spectacular pantomime. John Byrne is a master of art of planning a play that will be full of mechanical effects, the sudden use of which is amusing in the extreme. The school yard scene in the first act brings the leader on the stage, and the many escapades of the boys in tricking their worthy master are ludicrous indeed. The human ladder is very well constructed and its combinations are most apt. Perhaps the dissolution of the wonderful horse and carriage in the first act is the most amusing of anything. The by-play of act second is enlivened by a very pretty dance, as well as some clever grotesque dancing by members of the company.
The boat scene, however, caps the climax of this act, and the quick changes from stateroom to stateroom makes lots of amusement. The revolving and final collapse of the ship is an effect never to be forgotten.

Double Wedding.

Harry Jones of Williamstown and Annie Lewis of North Adams were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage September 28, 1896, at 9.30 a. m. With them were Fred Brazil and Annie Jones, both of North Adams, who were married at the same hour.
They were accompanied by friends from Blackinton as witnesses.

HARTWELLVILLE.

E. E. Goddard who is at work for Burlingame & Darby of North Adams was home on a short visit last Saturday and Sunday.

S. Mason returned home from his squirrel hunt last Saturday. Says he had a good time and captured or rather shot a number of the greys.

Mrs. Mary Jane Biles is very ill at Joe White's and Mrs. J. D. Tenney is taking care of her at this time.
Edward Leray and wife and Miss Carrie Reed attended the fair at Brattleboro this week.

Arnold Wescott has traded horses three or four times in the past week.
The last of the city boarders at Candy's hotel left for New York Monday of this week.

Charles Lafuer and Charles Cutler of Roadboro were in this place Monday to see about taking the job to paint J. M.
Canedy's house.

Edward Leray and Bonjard's Canedy have taken a job of L. E. Reed of cutting wood.

W. S. Bellows started Monday to attend the cattle show at Cunningham. He

SPEAKING IN IRONY

A man may ridicule the Silver or Gold standard, but we believe in a Double Standard—either metal goes here. The purchasing power of Silver will be surprised to find that it has never bought our Gold. 50 cents will purchase as much as ARNOLD'S as a dollar will elsewhere. The quality is so good that we should demand payment in Gold. But the White Metal will purchase as much here.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

Happenings of Interest in Our Neighbor Towns.

AT ADAMS TODAY.

Orr-McKenzie.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Orr and Archibald H. McKenzie at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Orr of Columbia street, Renfrew, Wednes. day evening, was a very pretty affair. Rev. A. B. Pennington, pastor of the Congregational church, performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the presence of a very large number of relatives and friends. The parlor, in which the young people were married, was beautifully decorated with potted plants. The bride wore a handsome attire of white mull, with white satin ribbon and lace trimmings, and carried a bunch of white roses.

Miss Elizabeth Orr of Williamstown, the bride's sister, was bridesmaid and the groom's brother, James McKenzie of Jewett City, Conn., acted in the capacity of groomsmen. The middle costume was pink and was trimmed with green chiffon. Her flowers were pink roses.

When the bridal procession entered the room, Miss Nellie McNulty at the piano and Thomas Palmer, the violinist, played a wedding march. After the pronouncement of the marriage vows, the friends of the young couple crowded about Mr. McKenzie and his wife and showered their congratulations upon them. A reception followed and various vocal and instrumental musical selections were rendered. Refreshments were served by Caterer Hammond.

After 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie were driven to North Adams where they took the train for Troy. From there they will remain for a week or ten days. Upon their return they will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Orr for a time.

The bride is a popular young woman, a graduate of the high school class of '94 and a prominent worker in the young women's societies of the Congregational church.

Mr. McKenzie is foreman in the Renfrew Manufacturing company's dye-house on Dean street, and secretary of the Alert hose company. He holds a high place in the estimation of the best people of the town.

Work on Center Street Bridge.

The work of taking up the Center street bridge and moving it to Dean street is going on rapidly. Wednesday the telephone and telegraph poles in the river which were in the way, were removed and all the wires were set in a different way. The band stand will have to be moved back considerably as the new bridge will touch the point where it stands. The temporary wooden bridge built at the west side of the old structure will be used by pedestrians while the work is going on and horses will be obliged to take a roundabout way to pass the place. As soon as the bridge is moved to Dean street, the heavy iron girders will be strung across the stream and the brick and stone work will be started.

Reading Club Meetings.

Mrs. John S. Adams entertained the Thursday afternoon reading club today and the following program was observed: Roll call; reading from Scott's "Lady of the Lake," members of the club; reading from "Chautauque," Mrs. W. B. Green; current literary events, Mrs. N. H. Bixby. The Home Reading club met with Mrs. O. A. Upton and a series of studies of the City of Rome was begun by Mrs. M. C. Samuel Swain, who has a market garden, reports the loss of over one hundred heads of cabbage, besides other vegetables. Mr. Phelps, the milkman, reports the loss of sixty-five quarts of milk. Chicken coops have also been entered and plundered. This is not the work of boys, and a liberal reward will be given for any information that will lead to the arrest of the thieves.

Indications are favorable for securing the electric lights petitioned for a short time ago. They are much needed and will be greatly appreciated.

The Y. M. C. E. society of this village has arranged for a course of entertainments to be given weekly during the winter. The course will consist of socials and concerts, public and private debates, and a course of lectures and sermons.

Among the speakers already secured are Revs. W. L. Tenney and A. B. Church of North Adams, Revs. Theodore Sedgewick A. E. Hall and Edward Wilson of Williamstown, O. A. Archer, Blackinton and E. A. Watkins of Albany, N. Y.

SOUTH WILLIAMSTOWN.

The Y. P. S. C. E.

The third anniversary of the Y. P. S. C. E., was appropriately observed last Monday evening. The Sunday school room was tastefully trimmed with autumn leaves and a profusion of wild flowers, the work being done by members of the society. The fire screen besides other decorations was gracefully draped with a large American flag while many smaller ones were dotted here and there among the flowers, altogether being very attractive.

Refreshments were served as usual, coffee and cake in abundance, but the most conspicuous was the society birthday cake of generous size made by Mrs. Arthur Smith. It was prettily trimmed with flowers and on the top were three wax candles designating the age of the society. In due time they were lighted and after being on exhibition a proper length of time the cake was out and distributed proving to be as pleasing to the palate as it was to the eye.

A business meeting of the society is called for next Saturday evening at 7 o'clock, and all members are urgently requested to be present.

Died at Petersburg, N. Y., Sept. 27, Mrs. Pauline Moon, aged 94 years. Mrs. Moon had naturally a strong constitution and had lived a long and useful life with little sickness till a few months past, when her health seemed gradually failing, until the end came. Her hearing was somewhat impaired but otherwise she had retained her faculties to a remarkable degree. She was a loving parent, a kind neighbor, and a consistent Christian woman, having been connected with the Baptist church for many years. Three children survive her—Joel Moon of Petersburg, N. Y., Mrs. Almon Jones and Mrs. Della Young of this place. The funeral was largely attended last Tuesday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Hickox, Sept. 26.

S. A. Hickox went to Boston Wednesday, being one of the delegates to the Republican convention held at that time.

Last Sunday evening services were held in the church, conducted by Rev. Mr. Merritt, the subject being the two ruling passions of the world, "Love and Hate."

Next Sunday morning his subject will be "What is a Christian?"

Miss Blanche Mills and two nieces, who have spent the summer at the "Idylwild," left Thursday for their home in Williamstown, Mass.

Hickox; secretary, Mrs. A. C. Smith; treasurer, Mrs. D. W. Thompson; librarian, Miss Bertha Torrey; assistant librarian, Miss Lulu Young.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Torrey of New York city arrived in town last Monday, coming by way of Saratoga on wheels, and are stopping for a few days at the family homestead, now occupied by Mr. Torrey's brother, Homer. Mr. and Mrs. Torrey ride the Victor and Victoria wheels, which they naturally consider the best, and as they have found good roads and had fine weather they are enjoying the trip very much.

KEEPS ADDING TO IT.

The list of cures will soon wipe out the list of sufferers in North Adams.

First one, then four, then eight. Rapid progress, isn't it?

Well it should be, it takes them all. Beginning with backache—they cure. Excess of urine—they cure.

Frequency of urine—they cure. Burning in passage—they cure.

Sediment or brick dust—they cure. High color and mucus—they cure.

Diabetes and Bright's disease—they cure.

All the same to them—they're made for it.

They are Doan's Kidney Pills. They add to the list all who take them.

And North Adams list is long. Because the cure misses none.

North Adams citizens know it. Foremost among them is Mrs. Carrie Biggart of 10 Liberty St. That lady dates the trouble with her kidneys from the birth of her first child some six years ago and in speaking about her ailment she says:

"My physician told me six years ago that my kidneys were diseased and ever since then I have been subject to attacks of backache, weakness and languor, weakness of the back, frequent desire to urinate and dizzy headaches. I was treated by the most skillful physician and I tried everything I read about or was advised by friends to take. There was little accomplished until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the drug store of Barlingham & Darby. When I procured them I had very little faith in them doing me any good but I was greatly surprised I did not take very many doses when I noticed first the urinary trouble leave me. Soon the aches and pains disappeared. I am quite free of the whole trouble and I can say that Doan's Kidney Pills did for me what no doctor nor any medicine ever succeeded in accomplishing."

Doan's Kidney Pills are sold for 50 cents per box. For sale by all dealers or sent by mail on receipt of price. Foster-McLennan Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

out in the rain

A good drenching in a cold rain is often the beginning of consumption. Yet no one claims that the germs of this disease exist in the rainwater.

Then how was this brought about? The exposure was followed by a cold; the vitality was lowered; the cough continued for some weeks; the throat and lungs became congested; and thus all the conditions were favorable for the consumption germs.

Scott's Emulsion

of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, does not directly attack these germs and kill them. But it does tone up the whole system and restores the body to health before serious harm is done. The germs of consumption thrive best when the system is weakened and the throat and lungs congested. Do not delay until it is too late, but treat your cough early. Cod-liver oil and the hypophosphites, in the form of Scott's Emulsion, are the very best remedies.
